

Parent Communication Ladder

Most times, if you have a concern about your child's educational experience, the fastest way to a positive result is by starting at your school with the teacher or principal.

If after reaching out to the school you still need more help, our Office of School Relations will be your guide.

Your teachers and principal care about your child's success. Please do not hesitate to let them know of any concerns.