

Dramatic Arts Week of November 30th Activities

Give the activity for your grade level a try!

KINDERGARTEN In this week's lesson, we learn actors can use their bodies to perform poetry. Review the ingredients of poetry here.  What ingredients make a poem behave? Name as many ideas as you can.	FIRST In this week's story, the main characters learned quite a bit about positive thinking. Jot down in your own words what it means to be positive. List two positives about yourself. 	SECOND Just for fun, retell this week's fable. Create a different voice for each character in the story.  Be sure to change the voice you create when it is time for each character to say their lines.
THIRD Draw pictures of the different stages of a story you are currently reading. 	FOURTH Imagine a funny/crazy thing that has happen in town and create a news report about it. Share your work with the class here. 	FIFTH Play "What's My Line?" with figures from history. Chose a person from acting history and recite a line they are famous for saying. Share it here For help try researching old Hollywood child stars.  OLD HOLLYWOOD
