

Dramatic Arts Week of November 2nd Activities

Give the activity for your grade level a try!

|  |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| KINDERGARTEN What is there to learn from Zomo the rabbit?  Just for fun re-enact one of the 3 impossible tasks Zomo faces in the story.   | STAR   | FIRST What is the special message (theme) the author wants the reader to know from this week's story Spoon? List the three ways to piece together the story's theme.                   |
| STAR   | SECOND Changing the setting of a classic story causes a domino effect with other elements. Using the story Manana Iguana, brainstorm new changes for your adaptation.  | THIRD List the 5 categories of stories that make up folktales. Next, name stories that you know under the various categories. Finally tell why the stories fit into a particular category.  |
| FOURTH "What if?" Stories Fantasy is define as "imagination at work". Try using 1 of the fantasy situations to create a story. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The moon were made of cheese</li> <li>2. School were 24 hours</li> <li>3. The sky were the ground and the ground were the sky</li> </ol> | FIFTH Character Monologue Choose a character from your favorite movie. Write and perform a monologue for this character.                                        | STAR    |