

AF JROTC Need-to-Know Information:

Benefits:

- Participate in extra-curricular activities:
 - Color Guard, Kitty Hawk Honor Society, Model Club, Raiders Team, Flag Detail, JLAB (Academic Bowl)
- Phenomenal Field Trips:
 - Wright Brothers Memorial at Kitty Hawk (Fall/Spring)
 - Ft Bragg Airborne & Special Operations Museum
 - Camp Butner Obstacle Course
 - Cadet Orientation Flights (Civil Air Patrol-sponsored)
- Earn community service hours
- Develop lasting friendships
- Participate in patriotic activities
- Build character
- Preparation for leadership roles
- Earn job recommendations
- Participate in fitness activities weekly
- Opportunity to compete for pilot training scholarship (additional info on reverse side)

Do you want to be a pilot?? You may be eligible for the
CSAF Private Pilot Scholarship

Need to Know:

- $20K all-expenses paid scholarship
- 8-wk summer residency program
 - Intensive academics/flight lessons
- Hosted at college sites nationwide

Eligibility Requirements:

- AF JROTC cadets
- 16 years-old
- \geq 3.0 GPA
- Current sophomores, juniors, seniors
- Complete Aviation Qualifying Test & Physical Fitness Test