

Notification of Possible Media Visits

Throughout the year, members of the media may contact the school district for permission to photograph classes. The Office of Public Affairs makes arrangements with the principal for such visits, which typically cover classroom or extra-curricular activities. Members of the media may not photograph students without the prior approval from the school.

IF YOU DO NOT want the school system to allow the media to take photos or make video recordings of your child, please complete the following:

Please return this form to school if you choose to sign it. If you have any questions, contact the principal.
